Rules and Conditions of Entry

Guidelines on Categories

Published Fiction may include- but is not restricted to- popular fiction, novels, literary fiction, short stories, graphic novels, crime and thrillers.

Islamic Non Fiction can include Seerah, Biographies, History, Quran and Hadith studies, moral and spiritual development and science in Islam.

Eligibility

1. Books must have been first published or will be published between the calendar year January 2009 to October 2010.
2. Books will not be eligible in a category where the author is a member of the category judging panel. Books will be eligible where the author is a member of a separate judging panel.
3. Books published solely online are not eligible for entry.

Entry

1. Five copies of each book, accompanied by a completed entry form available to download online, must be sent by Friday 14th May 2010 to Muslim Writers Awards, E1 Business Centre, Suite 1.02, 7 Whitechapel Road, E1 1DU.
2. Entries must be in a book form. Books published between May 2010 and November 2010 may be submitted in proof form if necessary after obtaining permission from Muslim Writers Awards.
3. Entries can only be accepted from publishers and will not be accepted directly from authors. The submission of an authors work by the publisher will be taken as agreement by the author that he/she is willing for the submitted work to be considered.

Shortlists and Winners

1. By entering your work you agree to participate in publicity and promotion in the run up to and following Muslim Writers Awards events.
2. Four additional copies of each shortlisted book must be supplied by each publisher for publicity purposes. All books supplied are non-returnable.

Awards Ceremony

1. Shortlisted entrants must make every effort to attend the Awards ceremony.
2. The decisions of the judging panel are final and binding, and Muslim Writers Awards will not enter into correspondence or negotiation about the results.

Please note:

1. Material which is felt offensive or unacceptable will be removed at the discretion of the judges and MWA committee.
2. Writing which contains vulgar, explicit, pornographic, violent and obscene content is not tolerated.
3. Material which is gratuitously blasphemous will be removed.
4. Material whose aim is to revile others, engage in hate speech and/or advocate violence or cruelty will not be accepted.
5. Material deliberately provoking or insulting other groups (either individually or collectively) will not be accepted.
